

FOCUS AREA: DISABILITY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Students can choose an area of focus under the framework of Disability Studies by following the minor track in Disability and Human Development. Students will be allowed to complete the minor area of study in Disability and Human Development if they meet the transfer-eligibility criteria at the time of application (minimum GPA 2.50/4.00). A minimum of 2.50/4.00 is required for the minor field.

Required Courses – Disability and Human Development Minor	Hours
Required course:
DHD 101 – Disability in Society (3)	3
Select at least one core course from:	6
DHD 102 – Disability in American Film (3)
DHD 201 – Disability, Rights and Culture (3)
DHD 202 – Disability, Health and Society (3)
Select one elective from:
DHD 403 – Disability in Latino Communities (3)
DHD – 440 Introduction to Assistive Technology: Principles and Practice (3)
Students may also choose the remaining core course as their elective
Total Hours – Disability and Human Development Minor	12